

Waukegan Community Unit School District #60 • Fall 2007 Conference

Differentiated Instruction: Meeting the Needs of All Learners

Waukegan, IL • September 28, 2007

Greetings,

We're excited to announce that the Waukegan Community Unit School District is hosting a unique and fun professional development event for K-12 teachers!

Differentiated Instruction: Meeting the Needs of All Learners is where you'll learn the latest classroom-proven strategies, take your teaching skills to the next level, and gain the hottest and most amazing new DI techniques from a hand-picked team of dynamic and talented presenters.

It's also where you'll join peers from across the district for an unforgettable, action-packed day of knowledge, networking, and fun.

Don't miss this chance to learn about—and try-out—the tools and techniques you need to help every student reach his or her full potential.

Register to attend today!

When?

September 28, 2007
8:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Where?

Waukegan High School

How much?

There's no cost to you!

Click here to LEARN MORE

Or visit www.SDE.com/Register/Waukegan

REGISTER ONLINE
TODAY!

LEARN MORE

“So, what’s in it for me?” you ask!

- Presentations by a who's who of today's best and brightest education experts.
- Over 60 hands-on, highly-interactive sessions filled with research-based, “teacher-tested” strategies you can implement immediately upon return to the classroom.
- Comprehensive Resource Book on CD-ROM chock-full of handouts from every session.
- Convenience of shopping for the latest professional books, materials, and teacher resources at the on-site Crystal Springs Book Fair.
- Share ideas, experiences, and solutions with colleagues from within your school and across the district.
- Meet your state re-certification requirements.

Provided by:

